

“To see if the Town will vote to amend the existing Zoning Bylaw of the Town of Lanesborough (the “Bylaw”) as follows:

1. By adding a new defined term for Outdoor Adventure Recreation Facility under Section II. Definitions as follows:

Outdoor Adventure Recreation Facility – land, buildings, improvements, facilities and related appurtenances, including challenge course elements, zip lines, ropes course elements, canopy walk elements, hiking trails or biking trails to be used for or to support outdoor adventure recreational activities, team building exercises and/or adventure games occurring at the facility.

2. By amending the Table of Permitted Uses contained in Section IV. C. of the Bylaws to permit Outdoor Adventure Recreation Facilities in Limited Business zones upon issuance of a special permit by the Zoning Board of Appeals as follows:

RECREATIONAL USES	R	RA	B	LB	MR	I
Outdoor Adventure Recreation Facility				ZBA		